

NORMALLY MONOMIAL GROUP ALGEBRAS

Shalini Gupta

Department of Mathematics, Punjabi University, Patiala, (India)

ABSTRACT

A group G is called normally monomial if all its irreducible characters are induced from the linear characters of its normal subgroup. In this paper, a complete algebraic structure, in terms of primitive central idempotents and Wedderburn decomposition, of group algebra $F[G]$, where G is a normally monomial group and F is a finite field, is obtained.